WHAT DOES "ChorogUsan" MEAN?

ChorogUsan means "Green Umbrella" in Korean. It is a symbol of growth, protection, and hope for every child.

Just like a green umbrella shelters children and helps them grow, ChorogUsan stands with children to protect their rights and support their happiness.

OUR PROGRAM AREAS

Child Protection
Advocating for a violence-free environment for children and promoting social change to uphold and protect children's rights.

Education
Improving education quality and digital competencies by strengthening the capacity of educators, so that children are better prepared for society.

Health
Promoting maternal and child well-being through nutrition support, community-based training, and capacity building for healthcare workers.

WASH
Improving community health by expanding access to clean water and sanitation, alongside training in facility maintenance and hygiene practices.

Livelihood
Expanding sustainable economic opportunities for youth by strengthening digital and vocational skills and entrepreneurship through youth-centered ecosystem approaches.

Community Development
Empowering communities to mobilize resources and build capabilities for self-reliant, holistic development.

Humanitarian Aid
Saving lives and upholding dignity through emergency relief, recovery, and psychosocial support during crises.
